Reflected in its architecture and interiors, the classic Caribbean styled Belvedere Villa is an airy and comfortable 3 bedroom villa on Antigua's northern end of the island.

Belvedere boasts breathtaking views over the Caribbean Sea, and a beautiful view of its swimming pool and lush garden from any point within the villa.

The villa is also complemented by a fully equipped kitchen and its living area offers access to magnificent sunrises and sunsets.

Each of the 3 bedrooms within Belvedere provide air conditioning and are quiet and private. Mosquito nets are available and guests can access all areas of the villa including the laundry room. The washer is new and regularly serviced.

Located within the Dickenson Bay area, Belvedere is only a 5 minutes walk away from one of the most popular beaches in Antigua, Dickenson Bay Beach. Supermarkets, restaurants, bars and the Capital city of St. John's are all within a short driving distance from the villa.

Dickenson Bay is a popular area on the North of the island and offers opportunities for both a peaceful vacation days at the beach and fun Caribbean nightlife with the numerous bars and restaurants located closely nearby and in some cases on the beach!

Belvedere Villas has its own independent entrance with private parking.

This Villa is rented to accommodate 3 persons. Every additional guest is US$30 per night. Our minimum stay is 4 nights.
