Nestled on six acres of meticulously landscaped gardens, Pigeon Beach Estate House stands as a true gem of tranquility and elegance. Prominently located next to the captivating Pigeon Beach, one of the most alluring and sought-after beaches on the island, this remarkable villa offers a holiday rental experience like no other.

Perched on a breathtaking peninsular in English Harbour, Pigeon Beach Estate House is blessed with awe-inspiring views across the bay and out to the vast ocean. To the east lies the untamed and natural Windward Beach, while the gentle and refreshing Pigeon Beach stretches to the west. These surroundings create an unparalleled setting that is truly amongst the most superior in the world today.

Step into the interior of this exquisite property and be greeted by the sheer splendor that befits a house of this exceptional caliber. With beautifully laid out queen and king size beds, the five en-suite bathrooms offer a touch of luxury for each guest. Every room features its own private terrace, allowing for stunning views and moments of serenity.

The heart of the property lies in the main lounge, which sits at the center of the structure. Connecting seamlessly from the north wall, it gracefully extends to the gazebo nestled amongst the south garden. For those who prefer alfresco dining, the gazebo also provides a delightful setting. Additionally, there are two sun decks nearby, harmoniously linked to the expansive sea water swimming pool. With a depth of ten feet and a sprung diving board, the pool invites guests to plunge into its refreshing waters.

Pigeon Beach Estate House offers an idyllic retreat where luxury and natural beauty converge. The proximity to Pigeon Beach, along with the captivating landscape and exceptional amenities, provide an enchanting backdrop for a truly unforgettable holiday experience. Whether you seek blissful relaxation or exhilarating adventures, this remarkable estate invites you to indulge in the grandeur of Antigua's coastal paradise.
