The Palms Estate is a condominium complex of four 1-bedroom residences built in a Plantation Estate style setting at The Palms near Darkwood Beach on the Caribbean coast of Antigua. The main house contains an Upper Floor apartment and a Lower Floor apartment. The Cottage stands in the gardens above the communal swimming pool and The Loft is above the garage.

Lakeside is two new 3-bedroom villas at The Palms, set on the banks of the Darkwood Lake in a delightful valley location with panoramic views over Darkwood Beach. The valley is peaceful and serene and surrounded by dramatic mountain peaks. Darkwood is an idyllic and very scenic beach, an island favourite, and certainly one of the most photographed beaches in the Caribbean.
