ADMIRALTY HOUSE

Turtle Bay, English Harbour, Antigua

6 5

This gorgeous waterfront villa, built in Caribbean colonial style, is nestled on the edge of the sea in the quiet cove of Turtle Bay, within the National Park to the south of Antigua. Admiralty house offers breathtaking and uninterrupted views across gentle waves to the island of Monserrat over the coral reef below. Sunsets are spectacular. The six bedrooms make it ideal for large families or groups of families and friends/crew. With the happy bustle of Falmouth and English Harbour being just 10 minutes away around the next bay, Admiralty House provides a beautiful and comfortable home from which to enjoy every moment of your time in Antigua.
