ALAGANA HOUSE

Monks Hill, English Harbour, Antigua

3 3

Nestled against the hillside just below Monk's Hill and looking out over Falmouth Harbour. Catch the cooling breezes and take in stunning southerly vistas of the sea and the islands of Montserrat and Guadeloupe. Very private, on a one-acre gated property, it is removed from the bustle of the village and provides exquisite views of Falmouth Harbor. As one of the original villa properties located on the island, the home is established, comfortable and ready to be your island paradise when you visit the Caribbean. A modern, well appointed, hillside retreat, this 3 bedroom villa boasts cathedral ceilings and panoramic views across the stunning landscape of both Falmouth & English Harbours.
