La Maison Du Nord captures the essence of Caribbean living from a prime waterfront position on Antigua's scenic north coast. Located in the prestigious residential neighborhood of Crosbies, this unique property offers direct access to the Caribbean Sea and delivers a rare opportunity to own a substantial seaside home with income-generating potential.

Positioned on a 0.3-acre parcel of lush tropical land, the property includes a four-bedroom main house and two detached guest cottages. Mature gardens surround the home, creating a peaceful retreat that blends coastal beauty with everyday functionality. Just steps from the water, the property also features a private boat jetty and a boat lift, an ideal setup for anyone who enjoys exploring Antigua by sea.
