Set on the southern coast of Antigua near the tranquil Mamora Bay, a selection of building plots offers a rare opportunity to secure prime real estate with panoramic sea views and access to a secluded private beach. Positioned close to the St. James Club Resort and just minutes from English Harbour and Falmouth Harbour, these plots lie in one of the island's most desirable and scenic regions. The area blends peace and exclusivity with the vibrant energy of Antigua's renowned sailing and cultural hubs, making it a highly sought-after location for property investment.
