With only 49 plots left available, homeowners will live in an exclusive development amongst the world's elite, with properties nestled along both the hillside and coastline.

Homeowners will have the opportunity to design and build their perfect home themselves or make use of our award-winning architects and experienced local contractors, ensuring their style is reflected into every inch of the property.

A spectacular choice of Beach Front, Ocean Front and Ocean View Lots are available for sale on this remarkable peninsula. Subject to restrictive covenants that are intended to respect the low density, luxury vision for the peninsula, the Developer can also make available experienced design, planning and construction teams to build out the dream villa.
