

 0.68 ac | 29,764 sq. ft

This 29,764 square foot parcel of land sits high above Willoughby Bay on Antigua's southeast coast, offering an impressive and uninterrupted view of the Caribbean Sea. The location captures the natural curve of the bay and the open ocean beyond, setting the stage for a future home that blends privacy, elevation, and stunning surroundings. Positioned directly in front of the internationally known Eric Clapton's rehab facility, the land shares the quiet prestige and exclusivity that defines this section of the island.

The terrain allows for a variety of architectural options, with plenty of space to build a villa, pool, garden, and outdoor entertaining area. Its slightly elevated positioning invites refreshing breezes and lends itself perfectly to designs that open toward the ocean.
