

 0.39 ac | 22,000 sq. ft

Set against the shimmering backdrop of the Caribbean Sea, this 0.39-acre parcel of land at Reed's Point in Jolly Harbour offers an extraordinary opportunity to own prime Antigua real estate. The lot sits perched on a rocky peninsula, perfectly positioned to capture uninterrupted panoramic views of turquoise waters, passing yachts, and soft, tropical skies. With natural elevation and surrounding greenery, the site provides a private and serene setting that defines the essence of upscale island living.

Reed's Point is one of Antigua's most prestigious residential enclaves. Its appeal lies in the balance it strikes between seclusion and convenience. This gated community ensures peace and privacy while lying just minutes away from the bustling heart of Jolly Harbour.

