

🏠 1 🚿 1

The Garden Flat offers comfortable and convenient long-term living in the quiet and desirable Fitches Creek area of Antigua. Designed for individuals or couples seeking an affordable yet well-appointed home, this one-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment blends style with practicality. Its location provides a peaceful residential setting while still allowing easy access to St. John's, the airport, and other key parts of the island, making it ideal for those relocating for work, school, or an extended stay.

The apartment comes fully furnished, allowing you to settle in quickly without the stress of outfitting a new space. A fully equipped kitchen gives you everything needed for home cooking, while the air-conditioned bedroom ensures a cool and restful night's sleep.

