Perched on a gentle hillside with sweeping views of one of Antigua's most iconic landmarks, Flower Moon offers a rare opportunity to purchase land overlooking the historic Nelson's Dockyard in English Harbour. Located on the island's scenic south coast, this exceptional plot enjoys a vantage point that few others can match, directly across the only surviving Georgian naval dockyard in the world.

The property captures uninterrupted panoramic views of the harbor, the marina, and the surrounding hills, providing an extraordinary canvas for creating a dream Caribbean home. Flower Moon is more than just a plot of land, it comes with architectural villa plans and the option to begin construction, allowing buyers to move forward with ease. Detailed plans are available upon request.
